

Interview

Dorothy Parler

Jerry Di Lorenzo

Playfully ♩ = 74

mf

The la - dies men ad - mire, I've heard, Would shud - der at a

mf

mp mf

wi - cked word. Their can - dle gives a sin - gle light; They'd ra - ther stay at tr mp mf

mf mp

home at night. They do not keep a - wake till three, Nor

f mf mp

read e - ro - tic po - e - try. They ne - ver san - ction the im -

mf

mf

pure, Nor re - cog - nize an o - ver - ture. They shrink from creepy

f p

f p

pow - ders and from paints... So far... I've had no complaints!

f cheerfully

(spoken)

f

"Her candle gives a single light"

She doesn't burn it at both ends. That being an old expression for living dangerously -- burning your candle at both ends.

"recognize an overture"

Know when a man is coming on to her.